

Great Plains – Midwest - Rocky Mountain
Conference & Tradeshow

May 21-23, 2012

Mystic Lake Casino Hotel, Prior Lake, MN

Call for Workshop Proposals

Deadline for Proposals is January 23, 2012

The Great Plains Indian Gaming Association (GPIGA) is a voluntary association composed of 24 federally recognized Tribal Nations in the Great Plains Region. GPIGA includes Tribes with gaming in North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Wyoming, Nebraska, Kansas, and Iowa.

Important Dates:

Sessions will be held on Tuesday, May 22 and Wednesday 23, 2012

General Information

- Please submit proposals in 60 minute formats.
- Proposals can be submitted for single presenter or panel discussion.
- Please submit a proposal relevant to Indian Gaming, Economic Development or Tribal related topic.
- Rooms are set up classroom style. LCD projector, screen and mic will be available.
- We give priority to GPIGA Associate Members, Trade Show Exhibitors and Tribal Membership.
- Topics will be evaluated based on relevance, member's feedback and requests from attendees.

Conference Logistics for Presenters

Because the conference and tradeshow is a major fundraising method for the organization, GPIGA cannot pay travel or honorarium, per diem, hotel rooms or speaking fees. We appreciate your support.

Questions? Please email Kaeleen at kaeleen@gpiga.com